

Public Lecture

Jasmine Wahhi

Co-Founder and Co-Director, Project for Empty Space

Thursday, April 10, 2025 at 5-6 p.m.
Graham Hall, Hillyer Hall

Enjoy a public lecture featuring Jasmine Wahhi, curator, educator, activist, and Co-Director/Co-Founder of Project for Empty Space.

Project for Empty Space is a multifaceted arts organization that includes exhibitions, artist residencies, public art initiatives subsidized artist studios, and artist professional development/granting opportunities.

April 10-11: Body Freedom for Every(body) mobile exhibition truck, created by Project for Empty Space, will be on-site at Smith College. Stay tuned for more details!

Free and open to the public

Presented by the Smith College Department of Art in partnership with the Departments of American Studies; Archives Concentration; History; Study of Women, Gender, and Sexuality; in addition to the Kahn Liberal Arts Institute; the Jandon Center for Community Engagement; the Lazarus Center for Career Development; and Smith Office for the Arts.